Systems and Industrial Engineering/Engineering Management Graduate Seminar

Fall 2018

Seminar Hour: Thursday 2:00-3:00 PM (we will ask some of the speakers to stay and talk to students until 3:30) and special times for faculty candidates and special speakers

Classroom: ENGR 301 (unless otherwise noted)

D2L: D2L will be used for submission of Speaker Summaries as well as information about upcoming speakers.

Instructor: Larry Head, ENGR 251, (520) 621-2264, klhead@email.arizona.edu

Office Hours: F 1:30 PM – 3 PM or by appointment (email request) [see my calendar at http://bit.ly/calendar_klhead]

Purpose: The Department Seminar is a weekly meeting where notable researchers present their work to SIE faculty and students. It is intended to engage the research community in interesting and relevant topics.

Prerequisite(s): SIE Graduate Student

Textbook(s) and/or other materials: N/A

Objectives:

1. Expose PhD students to a wide variety of SIE related research

Work Required:

1. Research Statement: Prepare a 1-2 page statement of your research interests. What are your interests? What are your goals? A faculty position? National Laboratory? Industry? Other?
2. Attendance: Attendance for this course in highly emphasized
3. Seminar Summary: For each seminar, a summary report is required. Each summary should provide an overview about the speaker; identify any specific information that you found relevant to your research, and other observations of interest. Each summary should be approximately ½ to 1 page in length and submitted to the course D2L site before the start of the seminar the following week. [This rule is strictly enforced]. In addition, if you are not in attendance in seminar, it is not possible for you to prepare a summary. Please do not submit a summary if you are not present in seminar.

Grading: (PASS/FAIL)
